

Stock Monologue for Auditions

You have the option of preparing a one-to-two-minute piece for your audition with literature from the time period and place (Victorian England). If you're not able to find your own piece, please feel free to use this one, and go for your RP (British) accent if you have one!

Marley was dead, to begin with. There is no doubt whatever about that. The register of his burial was signed by the clergyman, the clerk, the undertaker, and the chief mourner. It was true. Marley was as dead as a doornail. And who was it that signed the register? His partner in business...His sole executor...His sole friend, and his sole mourner... Ebenezer Scrooge!
